Numb. 1425

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 14. to Thursday July 17. 1679.

Genoua, June 28.

THe 25th instant arrived here the Resolution in 13 days from Trapany, where she left the Exchange, Roger Martin Master, and the Martin, Peter Dare Master, lading Salt for this place. Yesterday returned hither from Legorn, the Charles and Richard, Richard Churchwood Master. The 26th instant sailed hence this States Convoy for Spain. By a French Vessel arrived here, we have an account, that the French Men of War of whose being before Argiers we had formerly an account, have confirmed their Peace with that Government, We are told that the French Gallies will, in their way to Tripoli, visit Corsica, which is not at all liked here.

Madrid, June 28. On the 18 instant the Constable of Coloma made his solemn Entry at Zaragoca, and in the Church of St. Salvador took the usual Oath of Vice-King and Captain General of that Kingdom. On Monday last the King and the whole Court were entertained in the Plaza Mayor of this Town, with a Full Feast, there was but one Gentleman on horseback that fought, who performed his part with great applause, and came off without any other Misfortune than the loss of a fine Horse: But at another Feast in the Morning, two men were killed. From Lisbon we have an account by Letters of the 13th instant, That they were in some perplexity at that Court, occasioned by the proceedings of the Inquisition. You have been long since told, that the Pope had demanded the Processes against the Jews should be sent to Rome either to Confirm or Amend them, that the Inquisitors had refused to deliver them, and that thereupon the Pope had sent a Bull of Suspension and Excommunication against them; notwithstanding which, the Prince Regent commanded the Inquisitors not to deliver the said Processes, which the Inquisitor General sent for an excuse on his own behalf to Rome, but the Pope not admitting of it, has again commanded that the said Processes should be delivered to his Nuncio, upon which the Prince took away the keys of the room or place where the same are kept, and sealed up the doors, which the Inquisitor has given the Nuncio an account of; and we must expect to hear what will be farther done. On the 18th instant arrived here the Marquis of Villars, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Most Christian King.

Ratisbonne, July 13. Here is arrived a Minister from the Bishop of Strasburg, to take his place in the Dyet, of which he was deprived during the War. Daily complaints are made to the Dyet by those Countries and Places where the Imperial Troops are quartered, which they have ordered to be communicated to the Imperial Commissary, that so he may give the Emperor an account how uneasie people are in this particular, though at the same time it is thought very unfit that the Emperor should draw his Troops out of the Empire, as long as the French remain in it.

Copenhagen, July 15. Several Relations have been published here, concerning the Rencounter of our Fleet with that of Sueden, in which it is said that Vice-admiral Spaen, who commanded the Ship Lyon, has taken a Suedes Man of War of 45 Guns, and that the whole Suedes Fleet had presently upon the coming up of ours, retired into their Ports; that ours followed them, and resolved to send in Fire-ships to burn them in Port; but this account is not very Authentick, nor shall we have any that is so till Letters come from the Admiral or some other chief Commander of the Fleet to acquaint the King with what has passed; which we are expecting. The Ambassadors are met at Lundun in Schonen, and in their publick behaviour treat each other with great civility and kindness; but at the same time it is thought they will not so easily agree in the main Points of their Commission.

Hamburg, July 11. Our Letters from Paris give us an account of the Peace being concluded between France and the Elector of Brandenburg, which occasions much Rejoycing among the Country people, who have suffered so much by the War. The Mareschal de Crequi is now advancing with the Army under his command towards the Country of Oldenburg belonging to the King of Denmark. It is said that he will receive from the Princes of Lunenburg the places they are, by the Treaty lately concluded between the Most Christian King and them, to restore to Sueden; and that he will put Garisons into them, seeing the Suedes cannot, at this time, spare any Troops of their own to do it.

Minden, July 14. The French Army under the command of the Mareschal de Crequi continues encamped in our Neighborhood, and will do so till the Peace be Ratified; but the Mareschal has sent 7 or 8000 men towards Oldenburg, to raise the Contributions required of that Country; the Garison here, which consists in Ten thousand Men, Horse and Foot, is in the mean time very burthensome to the poor Inhabitants, who therefore with a great deal of reason long to enjoy the effects of the Peace. Several persons who were thought to have been killed in the action on the 30 past, have since appeared.

Brussels, July 21. Yesterday the Countess of Egmont parted from hence for Antwerp, to meet the Count her husband, who is returning from his Embassy in England, in which he is to be succeeded by Don Pedro de Ronquillo, who was formerly at that Court. Our Letters from Maestricht of the 19th instant say, that they work there very hard to finish the new Fortifications they are making, and that they had planted more Cannon upon the walls and made other preparations, as if they apprehended a siege. At Liege the disorders encrease daily, and the Emperor has written a Letter to those Magistrates, requiring them to restore things with